

Programme

Charles Avery

Onomatopoeia

August 28–November 7, 2010

on Saturday, August 28, 2010, 5 pm

Artist talk

Charles Avery and director René Zechlin talk about Onomatopoeia, its philosophers and the question of whether there is an island at all.

Included in admission

on Tuesday, October 5, 2010, 7.30 pm

Book presentation: The Surveyor

Fabian Reimann, grant holder of the Preis des Kunstvereins 2010, introduces his latest publication „The Surveyor“ in which he contemplates relations between espionage, art and multiple identities.

In cooperation with the Literaturhaus Hannover. The event takes place at Literaturhaus Hannover in the same building.

Admission 5 € / reduced 3 € / members free on Sunday, 7. November 2010, 11 am

Family programme

A one hour workshop for children and a guided tour with director René Zechlin for the parents.

Admission free

Art for Lunch

Wednesdays at 12:30 pm

A short tour through the exhibition and hot and cold lunch delicacies from Jonte's Küchenwerkstatt.

The topics of the short tours:

- 01.09. – Onomatopoeia in a nutshell with René Zechlin, director
- 08.09. – Travel tips I: The Port of Onomatopoeia with Klara Jung
- 15.09. – Phantasy and Reality with Ute Stuffer, curator
- 22.09. – Philosophers' hats with René Zechlin, director
- 29.09. – Travel tips II: Things to do with Klara Jung
- 06.10. – The phenomenon of the noumenon with René Zechlin, director
- 13.10. – The eternal dialectic with Ute Stuffer, curator
- 20.10. – Travel tips III: The best bars and restaurants with Klara Jung
- 27.10. – Making worlds with Ute Stuffer, curator
- 03.11. – Is there an Island at all? with René Zechlin, director

Guided tours

on Wednesday, Sept 01, 2010 at 7 pm with René Zechlin, director on Wednesday, Sept 22, 2010 at 7 pm with Ute Stuffer, curator on Wednesday, Oct 20, 2010 at 7 pm with René Zechlin, director on Wednesday, Oct 27, 2010 at 7 pm with Ute Stuffer, curator as well as Sundays at 3 pm and upon request

Included in admission